HI, HULLABALOOERS!

This is the scuzzy Hullabalooper himself, believe it or not! The only D.J. in the world who blows his own horn! Welcome to the KR-LA Beat. I put it together with my own little hands, and you'd better like it. On the get-YOU-see-Surely, this is KR-LA's way of showing you how much we like you... even you, silently sneaking to yourself off in a corner there! (I didn't mean YOU, the serious one). You'll find a lot of scoops inside about your favorite tunes... "WHAT FOUR FAVORITES?"... SHUT UP! (That was Maud Skidmore. She doesn't really know who the Beatles are. But she does a good job of pretending!) MAD! GET THAT BEATLE WIG OFF! On second thought, maybe she does know!

Back to the subject... the pictures inside were taken by KR-LA, and are so exclusive that they are printed in disappearing ink! You won't see them anywhere else. (Everyone else turned them down). Anyhow, what do you think of this newspaper, (newspaper?) (yes, newspaper!) I'd appreciate it if you'd let me know. I'd appreciate it even more if you'd write your answer on any old dirty dollar bill you happen to have lying around. Or even dirty old pennies. I'm not choosy! Now turn the page for the shock of your life!

D.C. FIVE HERE SOON

LOS ANGELES—KR-LA scored again when they snapped up the Dave Clark Five for an exclusive Los Angeles appearance at the Long Beach Auditorium on November 25th. The boys will meet at the airport by KR-LA D.J.'s, and plans are being made for

Many of KR-LA's listeners have wondered why they can't buy "Thinking of You Baby" by the D.C. Five, and "I'll Be Back Again," by the Beatles. Since KR-LA's records are shipped to us directly from England, we get them before any other person in the U.S. of A. even knows they're out! These KR-LA exclusives can only be heard on KR-LA... just another way of saying KR-LA listeners are first in EVERYTHING!

NEW YORK—Ringo Starr has announced that he will enter the hospital later this fall for his much talked about throat operation. He made the announcement at a press conference in New York just before he flew to London to begin this country to return to England.

RUMOR CONFIRMED
For months, there have been rumors that Ringo intended to have the operation, but it was finally confirmed when he made his statement to the press. Ringo does not know at this date just when he is to enter the hospital.

The operation will only take a few hours, but the famous drummer said that he expected to be in the hospital at least three days to catch up on some much needed rest. It is rumored that the three days will be sometime when the group does not have other pressing commitments, and will give John, George, and Paul a short vacation.

CONFIDED IN DAVE

Ringo didn't disclose the name of the hospital he is planning for his operation, however, when the group was in Los Angeles, Ringo confided to Dave Hull that it will be the University College Hospital where he was taken after his collapse last spring. The operation itself is very simple. Since Ringo never had his tonsils or adenoids removed, the main purpose of the operation will be to remove them, along with several small growths which cause our boy to get frequent attacks of tonsillitis, and sometimes cause Ringo to come down with very bad colds.

ASKS FOR TONISLS

Other than his throat, Ringo is in excellent condition. One fan has already asked for the tonsils to be preserved for her, but Ringo doesn't know yet whether he will answer her request. Everyone in the world joins KR-LA in wishing him a speedy recovery.

HI, I'M BOB EUBANKS! Here is your personal minute-by-minute guide of the Beatles' stay in Los Angeles. KRLA newsmen and photographers were there every minute to give all our listeners a guided tour through Beatle-land! (And that's the same as K*E*L*A*N*D)

The boys were so much fun to be with that I wish you all could have been with me. But since you weren't, here's the next best thing! Before they left, they asked me to give you their personal thanks for the groovy way they were treated in Los Angeles. So, from the Beatles . . . and from me . . . Thanks!

3:30 PM . . . THE BEATLES ARRIVE! Without telling a soul (except KRLA), the idols of millions land in Los Angeles to be cleared through customs. Derrick Taylor looks around to see if the coast is clear . . .

3:40 PM . . . It is, and so the boys slowly step down the ramp pausing for the KRLA photographer as they come down. The first they said was "Hey, it's sunny . . . we can go swimming!"

4:40 AM The boys are whisked into a security car and driven to the home in Bel Air where they will stay while they are in town. Ringo, in the back seat, is already half asleep. P.S.: He got to sleep later!

6:00 PM Press conference final! Out of Bob Eubanks' Cinnamon Cider, he and Bob Foster introduce the Beatles and tell members of the press that they can start asking questions . . . and they started asking!

"WHAT ABOUT JANE ASHER, PAUL?" "W and all, but we certainly aren't married. I found her yet, but I'm having a blast!"

"YOU WANTED TO SAY SOMETHING, RINGO?" "Uh . . . yes. Can I have a drink of water?" Thanks. Now tell me, when do we get to ask all YOU people some questions?" Bob Eubanks handed Ringo the glass, but didn't save it!

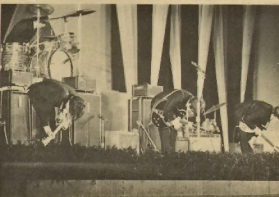

8:00 PM 'B DAY' IS HERE! The Bowl started filling at 3:00 in the afternoon! Everyone hoped to catch a glimpse of their beloved Beatles, but the boys were secretly brought in only a few minutes before the show.

9:00 PM The other acts have performed. Dave Mull, Bob Foster, Bob Eubanks . . . is a moment of silence . . . and then . . .

Ringo's hair is flying. His hands are going so fast that they're just a blur in the air. Every time he moves his head, the screens grow louder. Will anyone ever be able to forget 'B Day'? We doubt it!

Too soon, the boys take their final bow. By the time the screams have stopped, they are halfway to Bel Air for a three day vacation in Los Angeles before resuming their CBIS country tour.

2:00 PM It's over. The Beatles are leaving the weather knew how sad Los Angeles fans at the airport to say a last fond

3:42 PM KRIA's newsmen, Jim Stock, was right there to tape exclusive interviews with all four Beatles . . . something no one else was able to do. Then the boys took off for San Francisco's Cow Palace.

4:10 PM Finally, the Beatles arrive back in L.A. for their performance. Again, they lead secretly so that crowds wouldn't mob them. Again, KRIA is first on the scene! The boys were groggy and half asleep . . .

4:25 PM . . . But they still were able to smile and talk with KRIA newsmen. The only thing they could talk about, though, was getting some sleep before the long, hard day's night ahead of them.

What about her? Oh, we're good friends! I'm looking for the perfect gal. (Shawn's kiss!)

"WHAT DID YOU THINK OF AMERICAN GIRLS, GEORGE?" "THEY ARE JUST TOO MUCH! I really dig them! Never saw a country before where EVERY ONE of the girls was truly great, but I haven't seen one here that could yet!"

"JOHN, ARE YOU LEAVING THE GROUP?" "Rubbish! Wouldn't have anyone to pick on if I did. Besides, if I left these peer clods, they wouldn't know what to do. I'm the only one they like!" (Paul laughed)

. . . the KRIA D.J.'s walk on stage . . . the audience grows quiet . . . there . . . HERE THEY ARE . . . THE BEATLES!!!!

They look at Ringo . . . he adjusts his drums. Paul tunes his guitar. The audience screens louder and louder . . . finally, Ringo is ready. He gives the signal. The boys turn and face the stage . . . and sing.

"I want to hold your hand . . ." The girls let him know by their screams that they want to hold his, rest! The screens go on . . . and the Beatles sing . . . and sing . . . and sing. There's never been anything like it!

ing. The day is cloudy, almost as though it was to see them go. Jim Stock means goodbye . . .

3:10 PM . . . BUT WAIT! WHAT'S THIS? WHY THE SURPRISED LOOK ON JOHN AND GEORGE'S FACES? COULD IT BE . . . YES, BY GUM, IT IS! THE BEATLES MAY BE LEAVING K'R'L'A'M'D. BUT KRIA ISN'T LEAVING THE BEATLES!

3:13 PM With the KRIA 'hooky-players' safely tucked inside, the doors are closed, and the plane takes off. Yes, they're gone. But don't cry too hard . . . because they'll soon be back!

This Saturday, KRLA has a lot of new, treat coming up. It seems that Bobby Pickett has bewitched everyone into thinking that they'd love to have his monsters here at KRLA, and as for the outcome... we'll let him tell you about it...

HELLO BOYS AND GOULS ... HEH, HEH, HEH!

I want to tell you a MON-STROUS secret ... starting this Saturday, some of my friends will be with me at KRLA for a monster's holiday ... sort of a serious party ...

... in fact, a GRAVE party ... heh, heh, heh. You're all going to have a good time with one of my friends ... his name is Alvin ... he's quite harmless, really. The non-emotional type. COLD BLOODED, you might say! Alvin is bringing his zombie friend, Zella. Zella is a Bitch ... but she doesn't want their autograph ... no, she wants to drink their blood!

I'll introduce you to the "people" you will meet on Saturday ... first, meet Gerald, the surfin' Goul. Gerald and I have met quite close ever since we met ... in a CEMETERY ... Both of us tried to pull the other's mask off ... 'til we found out that neither one was wearing a mask!

Hortense, my favorite vampire, will melt your heart in no time. Then she'll drain it. Hortense also has a refreshing blood sucking ... COLD BLOOD ON ICE ... Heh, Heh, Heh!

Gerald and Hortense have been going together for three months now. It's quite a sight to see them ... Gerald, packed with bandages, padding out on his cardboard ... and Hortense right behind him, grabbing any of Gerald's bandages she can reach. They make such a lovely couple!

Barney, the shapeless blob, is a killer! He tells jokes. He'll SLAY you ... If you get near enough to let him!

All of you will fall in love with Tabby, the twisting twod. He's been a good friend ever since he fell into some stew I was making. Of course, I fished him right out. I already had a head the size!

You'll also meet my four little friends from England, the Cockroaches. They're a singing group. Their names are Jon, Gerge, Pill, and Rungo. They're very good, actually, and a new twist to their act. The audience sings, and they do the songwriting! Their latest record, "I Wanna Hold Your Throat," is a rage. (An outrageous!)

You'll meet lots of interesting characters on my show ... and if you're not careful, you might even become one yourself! In fact, here to show you how the good natured I am, the first person who writes in and tells me how many of my friends were on the first show will get a record album and an autographed picture of me ... signed, of course, in blood! Send your entries to KRLA, 1491 South Oak Knoll, Pasadena, California.

Now for a little information about myself ... I was born at midnight ... It was a full moon

... there was thunder and lightning outside, too. The thunder was from the doctor. He was afraid my parents couldn't pay the bill. The date was October 31. The year was 1664.

I lost most of my family during the Salem witch burnings. My nerves were so hot that I had to retire to a nice cold vault and sleep for a few hundred years. I took some of my family during my tomb. Alas, the poor man was found at daybreak. However, I managed to disguise myself well and took over the poor man's shell the next day. Unfortunately, I was discovered by Reb Fouter, who kicked me out. When I came to, I found myself outside the station, spouting on the door. But although he would not let me back inside, I got my revenge. I sent him Maud Skidmore!

After months of pounding at the door, KRLA took pity on me and let me inside. After someone brushed the cobwebs off my clothes, and the moss from the north side of my door, they agreed to let me have my own show. It starts this Saturday, and you'd better be listening ... DO YOU HEAR? YOU'D BETTER LISTEN ... OR ELSE ... HEH, HEH, HEH! YOU WILL LISTEN ... YOU ARE GETTING SLEEPY ... YOU WANT TO TURN ON THE RADIO ... YOU WANT TO LEAVE IT AT KRLA AND NOT SHUT IT OFF TILL I COME ON ... HEH, HEH, HEH! YOU WILL SIT BY THE RADIO WITHOUT MOVING WHILE I SPEAK ... WHILE HEH, HEH, HEH, HEH, HEH, HEH ...

DUST ALL

WEST INDIES—British star Dusty Springfield was stricken with a virus this week while she was on tour in the West Indies. Doctors suspect that the virus also had food poisoning ... they say that her condition is not serious. She was planning to leave for America just as the illness struck.

WILL REST FOR A WEEK ... Although she is in good condition, doctors have ordered her to rest for at least a week before resuming the tour. After her recovery, Dusty will make a stopover in Los Angeles where it is rumored that she will visit the KRLA studios.

D.C. 5...

KRLA to also host a party in their honor. In keeping with the station's tradition of bringing all of England's top groups to KRLA, "A*N*D", future visits by the Rolling Stones, Gerry and the Pacemakers, and Dusty Springfield are also being discussed.

KRLA WANTS TO KNOW WHAT YOU THOUGHT OF OUR PAPER! WOULD YOU LIKE TO SEE SOMETHING LIKE IT EVERY WEEK? LET US KNOW!

Peter Feels Much Better

LONDON—Peter Asher, of Peter and Gordon fame, is reported feeling better today and will be out of the hospital this week. The boys had interrupted their entire schedule in hopes that Peter would get better with some rest, but it was necessary to hospitalize him. His illness was described as a stomach ailment. When Peter was in town several months ago, he told KRLA feeling that he hadn't been feeling well. It is reported that Peter Asher's sister, goes to see him every day. As soon as Peter is allowed out of bed, the boys will return on a tour of Scotland. They will return to this country in late spring or early summer of next year.

FAX ON WAX!

Foster speaking. I've gone out and gathered some super scoops on all your record favorites, so that you can have all the fax on wax in the record world! KRLA listeners are always in the know, you know! Now, with the exclusive news, brought to you, of course, by KRLA and me!

DAVE CLARK denies that he is thinking of marriage. Rumors say that he is getting serious about a girl in London, but KRLA newsmen checked on that, and it is untrue. THE HONEYCOMBS, who's recording of "Here I Am" is climbing towards the number one position, are making arrangements to tour America early this spring. The boys are quite handsome, and have always wanted to come to America.

BOBBY PICKETT, recording star, joins the KRLA staff this Saturday for one of the most unusual shows in the world. You'll meet some very merry monsters, and if you listen to the show alone with the lights off ... well, that's your fault!

Right now, I'm in Central America with the STANDELLS. We're having a great time, but I sure do miss all of you! It's very hot here, but the girls are going crazy over the Standells. In case you didn't know, LARRY TAMM, the leader of the group, is RUNNING for Governor.

PAT AND LOLLY VEGAS are in San Francisco right now, and filling the house every night. They have one of the greatest acts I've ever seen!

I'll be back next week, so all of you hold on tight! See you soon. (And with the most beautiful fan in the world!) (I mean, I won't see you with the tan! It's mine!)

KRLA's ratings are now the highest of any station in Los Angeles, thanks to you, KRLA listeners. All the staff of the station wishes to take this opportunity to thank you, and to tell you that we would like to hear from you with any suggestions you may have to make KRLA even better!

BEATLE BITS...

Dick Moreland here, John Lennon hat and everything! Just thought you might like to know a few of the little unknown facts of making a record. ... no one else has ever printed before ... so here they are!

Most of you know that they bought their clothes at the Beau Gentry while in Los Angeles. But did you know that many stars buy their clothes there too, and so do we! (I mean, KRLA DJ, too.) The boys were told about the shop by the Rolling Stones, who were in KRLA's "A*N*D" a few months ago.

Speaking of the Rolling Stones, John Lennon loves them, and George is having them teach him how to play the guitar the way they do. John has every one of their records, and spends hours listening to them.

No one knew that Paul disappeared for a few hours from Bel Air, but the secret can be told! Paul combed his hair, disguised himself with sunglasses, and went walking in Hollywood. The reason no one knew about it was because he started sightseeing at 6:00 in the morning!

Let me tell you a few of the different things that have happened to Ringo, when he is nervous, constantly keeps smoothing his hair. When he is excited, he turns the rings on his fingers. If Ringo has a red mark on his finger, you know he's twisted the ring so much that he had to take it off. John, on the other hand, is perfectly deadpan. When he is mad, he doesn't say anything, but his foot starts twitching. Paul pulls at his ear lobe whenever he is thinking about something. George bites his lower lip. The four boys are very polite and seldom raise their voices.

Well, it's time to go riding off into the sunset ... see you on the radio!

New Show On KRLA

Starting this Saturday, KRLA presents something new in the way of radio shows. It's Bobby Pickett, who has had many hit records, including Monster Mash and Monster Holiday, makes his radio debut at 7:30.

Bobby is planning on bringing a carload of 'friends' with him to keep KRLA listeners entertained ... and they will be Zella Zombie, Hortense Vampire, and the screaming Cockroaches, Jon, Gerge, Pill, and Rungo, evort over the air. It will be the most unusual show ever heard in the southland, and to sum up the opinions of many noted singers, "Radio may never be the same!"

CASBY'S CORNER!

Hill This is Cassey! So many of you have asked questions about "Lenter From Elains" that I thought I'd take this opportunity to answer a few of them.

Elains is in her teens. When she wrote me the letter, I had no idea that it would touch all of you the way it did me. When I read it on the air, and got such enthusiastic results from all of you, I thought it was making a record. ... Since Elains's mother didn't want the publicity to affect her daughter, she made me promise not to reveal Elains's last name. Elains, of course, is thrilled to death with the record. "Not because it's a record," she told me. "But because George might hear it now!" Don't worry, Elains, he has (and loved it!).

When I spoke with the Beatles' press agent, I managed to get a list of some of the Liverpool slang they use. You already know what "Lenter" means, but I'll give you the rest of the list so that you can talk "Beatle Talk."

"You've got cheek" means "You're pretty nervous!" "Fooney" means funny, and "Roobish" is rubbish, which is anything and everything silly or untrue. The Beatles never say "Put up." What they do say is "Shurrp!" Shlugging the lower lip up between the teeth and blowing air through it is a polite way of calling someone a liar! "Screamies" are fans. No expression in any other language would mean "Be my guest." When the Beatles call someone a pip, they mean he is completely unnecessary! "Wild" means that something has soul.

Well, the boss is calling. Maybe it's because I was so busy writing this that I'm late for my show! See you later!

Hull Elected

KRLA DJ Dave Hull was chosen as one of America's eight D.J.'s to be a member of Ringo's Presidential Cabinet by Teen Screen Magazine. Teen Screen conducted a national Ringo for President campaign, with eight D.J.'s selected by popular vote for the cabinet. Dave Hull won by a large margin to represent the West Coast. Publisher Shelley Heiman stated that Hull is represented by the National Teenage Party, and reported to KRLA that the platform of the Teenage Party is "Let's get down off this platform and have a party!"

ACCEPTANCE SPEECH ... In his acceptance speech, Hull promised to kill the school bill, and any other kind of bill he can think of. It is a well known fact that he hates bills! Hull also stated that he will perform his duties with complete conviction, steadfast strength, and utter abandon.
