

ROLLING STONES ILL, MOST CANCEL ALL SHOWS

(Story in Col. 1)

KRLA BEAT

OVERWORK HITS GROUP

LONDON — The Rolling Stones, second most popular group in the world, have been forced to cancel all personal appearances due to complete exhaustion and illness among all members of the group. Although none of the Stones are now in serious condition, their doctors have confined them to complete bed rest for at least two weeks.

BRIAN ILL

Brian Jones was the most seriously ill member of the group. While in New York, he came down with a cold, but refused to cancel out on any of the Stones' personal appearances. By the time the group was ready to leave New York, Brian's cold had turned into pneumonia, and he was rushed to the hospital.

KEITH COLLAPSES

The group was scheduled to do a show the next day, even though Brian couldn't make it. While they were rehearsing, though, Keith collapsed from complete physical exhaustion and the show had to be postponed. Keith was put into the hospital for a rest, and will be out in a few days. After Keith's collapse, Andrew Oldham, the group's manager, insisted that Mick, Bill and Charlie each have a complete physical examination. The doctor who examined the boys said that they were all overworked and should have at least two weeks rest before continuing their grueling 3 month personal appearance tour. Although the boys were anxious to get back on the road, their manager insisted the boys relax for the two weeks. "If it were up to them," Oldham said, "They'd keep going till they all dropped. They don't want to disappoint anyone, and they never even think of themselves when there's a show to do. I've seen those boys go on when they haven't slept in days.

HI, HULLABALOOERS!

Well, I suppose you've all stuffed yourselves for Thanksgiving last week... in fact, to those of you who sent me all your old bones for my junkie float, THANKS A LOT! Geeb! This place smells like an old garbage heap... I didn't know there was that much junk in California! YEAH, BIG BOY... THANKS FOR KICKING ME OFF YOUR FLOAT! Now really, Maad! I'M INSULTED! GOODBYE FOREVER! Hey, you mean that? Gee, thank! Anyhow, now that she's gone, I really want to thank all of you for giving me all your old junk. To the two of you who sent that stunk, I'll deal with you later... after I've washed my clothes! Anyhow, I just want to tell you that I'll be looking for you on my float. NO, NO, I don't mean I'll look for YOU on my float, I mean I'll look for you while I'M on the float... I mean, oh, forget it! Anyhow, I'm going home to get a nice long rest before I have to climb up on that junk... but seriously, thanks to all of you for sending it in! See you next week!

TOMMY QUICKLY

HOLLYWOOD — Tommy Quickly has proved that you don't have to have a hit to be a star! Ever since his arrival in KRLA's #A*N*D, mobs of KRLA-ers have followed him wherever he goes. Tommy's press conference was a huge success... it was the first press conference of its kind, exclusive for fans only. No other artist has ever set up a special press conference for fans only, and everyone who went to the bash at the C.C. really appreciated Tommy and Brian Epstein for being so nice.

BOB'S BASH — A GREAT SH

The three KSLA d.j.'s check off the notes . . . everyone's here but the D.C. Five, who will arrive later. Bob, Dick, and Dave listen to the screams from the audience . . . and the show hasn't even started!

Bob Sabank introduces the first act, who are the Vikings. They appear every night at Bob Sabank's 'Climax' in Long Beach and really tear everyone up. They're great!

Next were the O'Jays . . . a really great group and other groups # 1 & 2 numbers. The group is hot because they won't stay local!

The Starry one announces Round Robin. Dave always gets a bigger head than some of the stars at the show! In fact, when he introduced his mother in the audience, she nearly got mugged! (So did Dave!)

Round performed his new song, and everyone liked it. They liked Round, too, and the audience showed it! For all his "roundness" he can really rip it up on stage, and does, fine after that his new one is good!

Dave announces Joey Palgo, the next act. Joey's form, and the Vikings, who have worked with him, and they know! How about it!

The Standells and Joey Palgo read the latest copy of the KSLA BEAT. Left to right: Larry Tomlinson, Gary Laine, Tony Valentini, Dick Dodd, and Joey. Dick was a Standsell!

The Dave Clark Five finally arrived! The first thing they saw was TIGER here of the BEAT, and they were really excited! Dave sent a copy to his mother, and they asked for more loans for everyone back home!

The D.C. 2 with Bob, Dick, and Dave read the w. Bob took like he could be one of the great! His father, and they know! How about it!

Wonder why all three d.j.s are out on stage! Could it be . . . yes, it is! It's D.C. Five! "You couldn't even hear the d.j.'s announce the boys, 'cause everyone started screaming! (Wonder why?)"

Dave took his place at his drums, gave a smile, and they started singing. The flashing lighting added to the exciting act. Dave started playing drums at 9, and it really paid off in a big way, didn't it!

Mike was the one all the girls flipped for. He is everyone throughout the act. You can bet that one back, that the boys left right after the show.

BOB'S BASH — A GREAT SHOW AND THE D

Just the D.C. members from Bob Roberts introduces the first act, who are the Villains. They appear every night at Bob Roberts' Chorus Club in Long Beach and really tear everyone up. They're great!

Next were the O'Jays . . . a really great group! They sing Louie Loffer and other groovy it 'ol 60 numbers. The group is made up of all local boys, but chances are they won't stay local long!

Dave Hull shows the Dreads his hair . . . wow! This group stole the show and got them to talk about everyone at the show just

These band

Brend preferred his new song, and everyone liked it. They liked Brend, too, and the audience cheered it for all his "reminders" he can really rip it up on stage, and does, thus after that they saw one is good!

Dave announces Jay's Peeps, the next act. Jay's first club was there in full force, and the Villains, who have worked with him before, did a great job of backing!

Jay's Doodle-type hair was the hearts of the riding young stars around if you were lucky and why! He's very close with the Rolling Stone,

BEAT. Left

The Dave Clark Five finally arrived! The first thing they saw was THESE love of the BEAT, and they were really excited! Dave sent a copy to his mother, and they asked for more leaves for everyone back home!

The D.C. B with Bob, Dick, and Dave read the whole thing through! Dave's look like he could be one of the group! His suit was exactly like their jacket, and they teased him about it!

So, pretty, hey! Mike swore Dick so that you "I don't want anyone to know that it's laugh" boys were full of fun and showed with the DJ, you, it is

Dave took his place at his drum, gave a smile, and they started singing. The flashing lighting added to the exciting act. Dave started playing drums at 8, and it really paid off in a big way, didn't it!

Mike was the one all the girls flipped for. He kept smiling and waving to everyone throughout the act. You can bet that everyone he waved to waved back, and the boys left right after the show.

When they did "Anyway You Want It," everyone that everyone wanted to hear, and it really lit the stars around them!

AND THE D.C. 5 TOO!

Dave Hull shows the Standells his here . . . are they trying to tell him something? This group stole the show and got more applause than anyone! They were so fab that everyone at the show just flipped!

Dick Mereland shows that Dave isn't the only one who can make a toot in the world! For a surprise, Dick plays a mean one! And guess who's next that one in line, huh? Dick tore the D.C. Five up!

Jay's Beebe-type hair won the hearts of everyone! He's one of the fastest rising young stars around! If you were lucky enough to see him, you'll know why! He's very close with the Rolling Stones, too!

Uh, oh, what's that! Believe it or not, it's a policeman putting the "coffee" on Jim Stucki! No, it wasn't because Jim was bad, but because Jim wanted to see how they felt! How do you know?

Smile pretty, boys! Mike covers Rick so that you can't see his hair . . . "I don't want anyone to know that it's longer than mine," he said! The boys were full of fun and stomped with the 41%.

Dave Clark contest winner Janice Sutliff holds Dave's drumsticks. While Dave didn't have time to teach her how to play, he did show her how to hold them! Rick even gave her a smooch, and Janice didn't complain!

When they did "Anytime You Want It," everyone cheered. It was the song that everyone wanted to hear, and it really hit big on KRLA. Even other stars watched them!

The great variety in their act won many fans for the boys. They did all their hit songs, one after the other. Here you can see Mike waving to one of his fans. They left town the next day.

DUE TO THE LACK OF SPACE BECAUSE OF THE PICTURE SPREAD IN THIS ISSUE, THE PERSONAL COLUMN WILL NOT APPEAR THIS WEEK. IT WILL RESUME NEXT WEEK AS USUAL. SO SEND 'EM IN!

RECORD REVIEW

By BOB EUBANKS

There are so many groovy records to talk about this week that I don't know where to get started!

First on the list, and best, if you ask me, is the new one by Gerry & The Pacemakers, "I'll Be There." This just has to be the best sound Gerry has ever had, and he'll have to go a long way to beat it. With every record, I like this group more and more!

Even though this one isn't new, (it's been a KRLA exclusive for nearly two weeks), it's still the best sound by any American artist I've ever heard. You all know which one . . . The Righteous Brothers with "You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling." Wow, that's all I can say! These boys should be dipped in gold for even singing such a groovy record!

The Manfred Mann Group, who are in town this week, are causing lots of action with "Sha La La." It's hard to believe that this English group is English; they have such an American R'n'B sound!

I'm not even going to say anything about the Beatle newie. The record has already sold a million, and I personally think "She's a Woman," sung by Paul, is the greatest song they've ever done. Leave it to the Beatles!

Well, on that note (hah) I'll close for this week. See you in two weeks!

STONES...

when they've been so tired that they could hardly stand up, yet they'll go on stage and put on a show that few artists, rested or not, could do.

The Beatles, who have starred many times that the Rolling Stones are not only their favorite group, but their "favorite people," have been spending a lot of time with the Stones since they returned to England. "If they hadn't been forced to stay at home," said John, "We wouldn't have even seen them till Christmas!"

CONTEST CORNER!

Are you tired of walking home from school all alone? Do people snicker at you as you board that dingy old yellow school bus at three o'clock? Well, now you can end all that! Yep, trust the KRLA BEAT to come up with the answer! No, we aren't going to give you a 1965 convertible! Or a new 1965 skateboard, either! But we ARE going to make sure you don't have to go home alone! How? Well, maybe we'll give you a little puppy dog to trot along beside you. Or maybe we'll send a record star to walk or ride you home. Would you like that? You would? Well, if you'd like that, would you like four record stars? Okay, don't shout at us, we know you would! And because we do know it, we're giving away, not one, not two, but FOUR Record Stars to walk you home from school. Here's how it'll be:

School lets out. You stand on the steps looking all forlorn. Suddenly, you hear a beep! It's coming from a bright red new Mustang convertible with the top down. And inside that new red car is . . . WOW! Four of the grooviest boys you've ever seen! And they're going to drive you home! Who are they?

The Standells!

YES, YOU CAN WIN THE STANDELLS TO DRIVE YOU HOME FROM SCHOOL! AND THE SECOND PRIZE IS NEARLY AS GREAT!

YOU CAN ALSO WIN THE DAVE CLARK FIVE'S COKE CUPS!

When the D.C. 5 did their show at Long Beach, they all had a coke before going on. KRLA BEAT gathered up these empty cokes, put 'em in a box, and saved 'em for you! Each one is marked with the name of who drank out of it, and that's second prize! Here's all you have to do:

The Standells just recorded a new record about a new dance. And this dance is named after a certain star . . . we'll give you one hint . . . it's a boy! (Congratulations) Can you guess who the star is? Okay, stop yelling the answer. We can't hear you out there! Sit down and write it like you're supposed to!

HERE ARE THE RULES OF THE CONTEST:

1. You must correctly guess what person the new dance is named after.
2. You must mail your answer in on an entry blank to Contest Corner, KRLA BEAT, 1401 South Oak Knoll, Pasadena.
3. Entries must be received no later than December 6th, 1964. See? Isn't that simple?

WAX!

By REB FOSTER

It's time for all the latest happenings in the wax world, so let's get going!

The Beatles will release an album the day after Christmas called "Beatles '65," and it will have seven tunes written by John and Paul.

The Dave Clark Five were scheduled for an appearance in Australia this January, when the news got out that the Rolling Stones and Roy Orbison would be doing a show at the same time. So many tickets were sold for the Stones show that the D.C. 5 had to cancel the whole tour! They really dig the soul sound in Australia! By the way, if you want to write to the Stones, their address is 147 Iver Court, Gloucester Road, London, England.

The Beatles new album, which won't be released until December 4th, sold over $50,000 one week after the news about the album was announced!

The Dave Clark Five will be back in Hollywood in January for three months to shoot their movie, "The Dave Clark Story." Sounds as though it'll be a "Hard Day's Night" for the five!

Did you know that Paul McCartney played piano on Peter & Gordon's record of "I Don't Want To See You Again"? That's one of the grooviest sidemen on records. (Please forgive that pun.)

That closes it out for this week! See you in two weeks with more FACTS ON WAX!

DAVE STEALS THE SHOW FROM SANTA

(Story in Col. 1)

DAVE IS A BIG HIT

HOLLYWOOD — Santa didn't have a chance when KRLA made the scene at the Santa Clause Lane parade November 25th! Dave Hull's junk float stole the entire show! Dave's float was made up entirely of KRLAers' contributions... and you can guess how many KRLAers contributed, seeing that Dave Hull is the most popular d.j. in the whole world! Dave started making announcements about his float almost a month before the parade, and junk started pouring in. Doors, tractor tires, street signs, anything you can think of was mailed or brought in to the station by loyal Hullabalooers!

KITTENS TOO!

While Dave asked for junk, he didn't ask for litter... but that's what someone brought him! You guessed it, a litter of... kittens! Dave gave the tiny cats away, saying that they might not like it on the float! The float was built the night before the parade by Dave and one of his friends, who also drove the float (dressed in a Mickey Mouse hat). The finished results were surprisingly pretty, proving once again that Hull can always make a nice something out of a worthless nothing! With the green crepe paper background, the float looked like Christmas morning (after everyone's opened their presents!).

FIRE DEPARTMENT BURNS

The fire department threw a little cold water on the float, though... literally! Since Dave's float was made up of "combustible materials," the Firemen insisted on hosing down the whole float, just to make sure that it couldn't catch fire! Although the water had a "dampening" effect, it didn't do too much damage to the float. In fact, the crepe paper crinkled up, making the whole thing even prettier. Dave sat on an old chair

Well, this week sure passed "Quickly" (hey, laugh, that was funny!) SO IS YOUR FACE, BIG BOY! Oh no... Mami can't leave me alone for one minute!

Anyhow, I sure showed them all at the Santa Clause Lane parade! Yep, the Hullabalooer did it again! And to those of you who waited until my float was all fixed to grab your junk back, THANKS, Indians give it! By the way, whoever sent me 13 kittens... come back and get 'em! I don't want them! Well, you may not know it, but Ringo didn't bury his tonsils after all. He gave them to me, and I'm using them for paperweights. Believe it or not, when the doctors finally got the tonsils out, they discovered why the Beatles are such a success... the tonsils were goldplated! By the way, and this is serious (for a change) Paul's father got married two weeks ago. NO, not to Jane Asher! My goodness! I'm getting out of here... see you next week!

RINGO NOW FEELS FINE

LONDON — Ringo Starr, the most popular drummer in Ringo's voice, is doing fine after his long awaited tonsil operation. News of the operation, which broke here in our KRLA BEAT nearly two months ago, was a great surprise to most Beatle fans. Fears were raised that the operation might make Ringo's voice change drastically, but doctors at the University College Hospital said that the only voice change, if there is any, will be less hoarseness in Ringo's voice. Derek Taylor, press agent for the Beatles, said that Ringo told him after the operation that now he will be able to face London's cold winters without catching cold!

So many letters have come in asking for more backstage scenes of the TAMI show that we couldn't resist any more! So we decided to print the pictures, but that left us with another problem . . . letters started pouring in asking us to run pictures on Manfred Mann when he came in town last week. Now, since KRLA always tries to make you happy (you know us!) we decided to run the TAMI show AND Manfred . . . or Manfred, if you prefer (there's five of them). When you come right down to it, what more could you want? (Okay, besides the Beatles, that is!)

Before they leave for the show, Billy J. Kramer, Gerry Marsden, and Ronnie Oakley, owner of the KRLA BEAT, look at pictures of the glam show held by Bob Foster in October. Gerry and Billy J. helped Ronnie pick the pictures for that next issue of the KRLA BEAT.

Backstage was a stupor's heaven! Everywhere of the greatest stars in the record business! Here, Bobby, who never opens his eyes without a camera, before they go in their dressing rooms. Kahl Richards, Charlie Watts, Bill Wyman.

An English group from America! The Barbarians, who really will on stage, make their first visit to KRLA's "M-D" to do the TAMI show. The group is from Rhode Island. Their first record, "You've Got to Underneath" comes out this week, and it sounds as though it'll be a hit!

Gerry was the hit backstage! He has one of the wildest senses of humor of any star, and you just can't help but flip for him! Then, he and the Promoters with his club dressing room to go onstage. Gerry said that if he can, he'll be back for a visit in January. All of you out there start counting fingers!

This is a surprised B.B. (Remember Bobby) Bobby, Bobby, Bobby, who never opens his eyes without a camera, before they go in their dressing rooms. Kahl Richards, Charlie Watts, Bill Wyman.

Dick and Chuck Berry grab a peek in the backstage! Charlie Watts . . . and Chuck Berry in Charlie and the other Rolling Stones' favorite shop. Bobby Dale, well knows Berry fan, and later that he grabbed Charlie's old auto cup and took it home and framed it!

Jimmy Chastan was there too, and he looked so good that all the girls flipped! Jimmy and Bob Roberts are very good friends, and Jimmy has done a lot of shows for Bob. He said that KRLA was his favorite station, and when someone says that in a soft Southern drawl . . . well, you would have flipped too!

The Rolling Stones get ready to go on stage. Ch has said (You can't see Bill, he's off in the room) appears in the picture. The Rolling Stones are don't wear special outfits on stage.

Here, Gerry gets the boys on tape. (Jimmy's on the end). The boys tell Gerry all about themselves. Manfred, of course, is the one with the beard, and used to be a comic teacher in his home in America, so he's no stranger to our shores. Comparing England to America, he said, "You live faster, but we get more done!"

The boys were amazed by the KRLA BEAT. "Why don't they have something like this in England?" They asked. Maybe it's because they don't have a KRLA in England. Manfred! The boys called Dave Hill that night in my hotel . . . They'd heard about his way over in England! They wanted to come out to the station.

Gerry talks to the manager of the boys, Kenneth P. He had arranged for the group, since he's a good agent when he heard the boys and thought that it sure looks like he was right! They plan on st

Jan and Dean sit in their dressing room, ready to go on. They were the "master of ceremonies" of the show, and because of the way they dressed around, plans are now being made for a movie starring the two! The Supremes, who just had their hair done, decide to do some work on Dick! Without saying how good or bad they were, Dick was called "Old Daddy" for the next three days! (Just kidding). Gary Mack, KRLA's official "most 'em at the airport" D.J. shows a copy of the paper to Jimmy O'Neil, host of Skinning. Mike Shappard of U.A. records holds up a copy of Manfred's new single. The airport was kind enough to allow KRLA in to see the group right after they go through customs.

Now it's fan time! Representatives of the Dove Hall fan club were there to give Manfred some stuffed animals and "bells" for good luck, and other fans were there to give the group kisses . . . also for good luck! Manfred invited the girls to go to Skinning the next day to see them. Next week, Tommy Chubby pictures!

Time to relax! The boys sign autographs and chat with Gary. There were so many fans at the airport to see Manfred's Mamie (no, but that the boys had to be interrupted out across the field! Manfred, who said that he never takes his hot off, is very intelligent and prefers jazz to rock & roll.

Hey, how would you like to be the proud owner of a piece of the towel used by the Beatles on their last visit to Los Angeles? Well, you can! Jim Steck, who drove the Beatles from their performance at the Bowl, saved the towel they used to mop their faces with . . . and you can own a piece of it! Jim cut the towel into pieces and had them mounted in plastic with a special back-card that certifies that it's a real piece of the Beatle's face towel!

If you want to get a piece of towel, send $1.00 and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Jim Steck at Beatle Towel, c/o Jim Steck, 23 Grace Terrace, Pasadena, California. Hurry up while the supply lasts!

Johnny III

LONDON — Brian Epstein, handling star Johnny Rivers in this country before he left for America last week, was forced to cancel all dates and shows for the singer. Johnny became ill and collapsed in his hotel room. He will be out of the hospital this week, but will take it a lot easier than he has been taking it! Johnny has been on the road for three months doing one night stands, and it looks like the pace was too much for him. As soon as he is well enough to go back on tour, he will resume the tour of England. Filling in on some of the shows that Johnny was supposed to do in London is Gene Pitney.

IT'S THE FIRST ANNUAL KRLA BEAT AWARD! TIME WHO WILL WIN? VOTE FOR YOUR FAVORITE NOW!

Who is the most popular record star in America? The Beatles? Or are the Rolling Stones taking over? Are the Beach Boys putting an end to the British sound? Or are the Four Seasons leading the way? Is it true that the D.C. Five are beating the Beatles? Who's REALLY on top? This is your chance to find out . . . and your vote will do the choosing!

The first annual KRLA BEAT award will be presented to the winning group, and results of all the votes received will be published in the KRLA BEAT each year, the KRLA d.j.'s will select the five most popular stars in the record business, groups or single artists, and nominate them for the Annual KRLA BEAT Award. Your votes will choose the winner! Now YOU can do something for your favorite star! Send your votes in to KRLA BEAT, KRLA, 1401 South Oak Knoll Rd., Pasadena, California. Results will be published one month from today!

The five stars that the D.J.'s have selected this year are:

- The Beatles
- The Rolling Stones
- The D.C. 5
- The Beach Boys
- The Four Seasons

Vote for the one you think is the top group in KRLA BEAT! Mark YOUR vote will decide who gets the award! (Use the ballot below)

I think the top group, the group that deserves the KRLA BEAT AWARD, are the . . .

My name is _____ and I am _____ years old.

DAVE...

on top of the pile of junk, blowing his own horn, as usual. (Maud Skidmore, who wasn't allowed on the float, reportedly left town in a huff.) Halfway through the parade, Dave's fans began "borrowing" souvenirs, and Dave finished the parade with only half a float. "Oh, well," he said, "at least now I don't have to worry about getting rid of the darn stuff!"

CONTEST CORNER!

WIN TOMMY QUICKLY'S SHIRT!

How many times have you noticed the groovy shirt your favorite star was wearing? How many times have you tried to grab said groovy shirt, only to find that (a) The star also thought the shirt was groovy and didn't feel like letting you have it, or (b) 50 big policemen wouldn't let you get close enough to even SEE the shirt, much less make a grab for it! Well, that's all changed! Yep, KRLA BEAT knew that you wouldn't be able to snatch Tommy Quickly's shirt, so we went and snatched it for you! (Mainly because we're bigger than he is!) The shirt was a gift to Tommy from Brian Epstein, has a groovy London label on it, and best of all, has a personal message from Tommy to the winner! Now just in case you don't win first prize, but still want an autographed something, we have another surprise for you! Just as we snatched Tommy's shirt, he was reaching for a handkerchief to put in his jacket pocket. You know us! We grabbed that too! The handkerchief also has a personal message to the winner on it, and both these prizes will be won by a lucky KRLA BEAT reader! (in addition to the five third prizes . . . autographed pictures of Tommy!) Here's all you have to do:

Tommy's favorite food is a dish that was invented over in England and is fairly popular over here. But Tommy doesn't eat his favorite food like most English people . . . he likes it served a very different way. Do you know how? If you want to win Tommy's shirt (didn't we tell you he'd give you the shirt right off his back?) than you'd better find out! If your's is the first correct entry we receive, Tommy's shirt will be yours!

FIRST PRIZE: Tommy Quickly's own shirt!

SECOND PRIZE: Tommy's hankey!

THIRD PRIZES: For five winners, a personally autographed picture of Tommy!

Just fill out the entry blank below, mail it to KRLA BEAT, 1401 South Oak Knoll, Pasadena, California before December 15th. Then sit back and cross your fingers!

HAPPY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU

FIVE CENTS

(Story in Col. 1)

KRLA BEAT

Our Christmas Card To You...

HOLLYWOOD—The old year is on its way out, and '65 is almost here. We hope its been a good year for you... you're sure made it a good year for us! No, we don't mean the fact that you've made us the number one radio station in Los Angeles, or the fact that so many of you became KRLAers during the year. What do we mean? Well, let's take it from the top:

THE BEATLES

Last year at this time, only one or two people had hopped on the Beatle bandwagon. Oh, sure, their record had been released, and it looked like "I Want To Hold Your Hand" was going to be a hit. So what? Lots of records had been hits, but no one went apoplectic over the singer. Then, like an avalanche, Beatlemania hit America. And things began to change. Things became fun again! For so long it had been "cool" to be cool... to go through life without letting anything affect you. The Beatles changed all that. Suddenly, it was "cool" to be yourself, to laugh when you wanted to, to enjoy yourself.

JUST RIGHT FOR KRLA

The change was perfect for us! Our djs knew how to have fun over the air, and now that they had the chance to do it... no holds were barred! (After all, what other station in the world had djs who would stow away on board a plane... with the Beatles helping to hide them!) If you have ever been to KRLA, you can see that to our djs, working at KRLA isn't work... they have as much fun on the air as you do listening to them! Because of you, we've been able to bring in all the top groups, have them on the air, and start the KRLA BEAT, the first paper of its kind in the world.

That's been your Christmas present to us. It's the best gift

HI, HULLABALOOERS!

This week I'd like to take the time to say something to everyone of you... something that comes from my heart. This year has been the most fantastic year of my life. I don't deserve the credit for it, either. YOU are the ones who have made this year so great... and I don't know how to thank you enough. It's hard for me to believe that you've done so much for me... I only wish there was some way I could tell you how thankful I am. I wish I could thank every one of you personally... someday, maybe I'll be able to. Those of you who have come down to the station just to see me, those of you who write so many beautiful letters, those of you who cheer for me at shows... you could never know how humble you make me feel. I only hope this year is as great for you as you have made it for me. Thank you... for everything.

HERMITS IN ACCIDENT

PASADENA—Herman's Hermits, of "I'm Into Something Good" and "Tom Me Girl" fame, were involved in a freeway accident while on their way to visit KRLA before they left town.

The accident happened on the exit of the Pasadena freeway. They were in the car with Peter Grant, their agent, and Clive Giv, promotion man from MGM. While they were stopped for their exit, another car, who didn't see that their car was stopped, hit them from behind. The boys were all shaken up, and there was extensive damage done to the car they were riding in.

Fortunately, none of the in-Hermsen and the Hornsils wait for the elevator to their rooms. Left to right: Barry, David, "Hermsen" (real name: Peter Messia) Karl, and David. They range in ages from 17 to 21.

How's this for a charon Real Style? They won't replace the Beaches, but who cares! Of all the groups KEHA BEAT has worked with, this one was the most down to earth and unaffected. They're a real gem!

Karl and Kahlb grab a minute's rest while they wait. The group left for England last Tuesday, but will be back! April 14. (It's unbelievable how good looking they are in person!) They can't wait to be back!

How to change an American into an Englishman in three easy lessons! Here, Hermsen (with the help of the Hornsils) gives Clive Fox, their pressman, an "English" hairstyle. It looked good!

Guess who Hermsen is talking to? It's the old Barry one himself! Hermsen had heard of Dave all the way over in England, and Dave was the first person he called when they got in! Dave talked to Hermsen on the air.

Hermsen talks to Dave, one of the Hornsils read the KEHA BEAT. They were excited to see that their song was number one on KEHA! They wanted to show KEHA to really that they came out the next morning.

Unpacking time! "Hey, that's my jacket!" "You're out of your gourd! I packed this in New York, it's mine!" Finally, they got everything sorted out and decided to EAT things separated next time!

"Come on, don't peep out on me now!" Hermsen's all ready to go out on the town, but the only response he gets is a flaky look from the Hornsils. They had come in from New York without any sleep!

The boys all back and prepare to spend the evening watching the American "telly" (English for tv). Believe it or not, they like the commercialized They Read Hollywood, but... "It wasn't like we thought it would be."

Fun time! Kahlb punched Hermsen in the back, Hermsen thought Karl did it and punched him, so Karl hit Kahlb up and wouldn't put him down all he spotted! They're the funnest group in the world!

"They're always plinkin' on us, just 'cause there's more of them!" The Hornsils dragged Hermsen to the window. "We're going to throw you out, lev!" They didn't, though. "We wouldn't... he's nice to have around!"

"Hey, you guys, get off my bed!" says Frank Mancini, their songster. The boys were so tired that while waiting for their rooms, they fell asleep! They looked so peaceful that no one had the heart to wake them up.

juries required hospitalization. Barry and Derek, of the Hermits, suffered sprained necks, and Herman and Peter Grant, who were in the front seat, both had sprained ankles. Most seriously injured was Clive Fox, who suffered a bad whiplash. The boys were able to make their visit to KRLA a few hours later, and went home to England the next day.

And here is our Christmas gift to you!
