See the grids on pages 8 and 9 for the new AM and FM schedules

Public radio listeners: we've been listening to you! Starting September 11 All Things Considered begins an hour earlier. The much-requested new time offers fuller drive-time broadcasts for National Public Radio's popular newsmagazine. A lively mix of news, business and science reports, newsmaker interviews and profiles, features, and reviews of the arts and books, gives ATC a personality all its own.

In addition to weekday hosts Linda Wertheimer, Noah Adams, and Robert Siegel—a New York native report of anti-war demonstrations in Washington, D.C. which began with the words, "Today in the nation's capital it is a crime to be young and have long hair...." In 1972 Stamborg became the first woman in the U.S. to anchor a national nightly news program. Through the years, ATC has assembled an extraordinary group of on-air talent, including Bob Edwards, Cokie Roberts, and Scott Simon. ATC has covered the major stories of our time, from Vietnam to Bosnia, offering gavel-to-gavel coverage of the Watergate hearings, a series on the murder of John Lennon, and reports who began his radio career covering Columbia University demonstrations and later worked at WRVR—ATC has an acclaimed group of contributors who add to the breadth of the program. From Peabody Award-winning Senior News Analyst Daniel Schorr to first grade teacher Bailey White and book reviewer Alan Cheuse, the program's contributors add insight, humor, and poignancy to each day's program. Since its debut in 1971, ATC has garnered broadcasting's highest honors, including the George Foster Peabody Award and the Alfred I. duPont-Columbia University Award. In 1993 ATC became the first public radio program inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame. When the show premiered, Susan Stamborg was a tape editor and Linda Wertheimer directed. The first program offered a lengthy on-site from the Soviet Union during the 70th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution. During the Gulf War, NPR correspondent Neal Conan disappeared in southern Iraq, turning up in the hands of the Iraqi Republican Guard before he was freed less than a week later. And Nina Totenberg's coverage of the Clarence Thomas nomination hearings not only won numerous awards but shaped the coverage of most other news organizations. Beginning September 11, WNYC listeners will hear a continuous 2 1/2 hours of the reports, features, and personalities that make All Things Considered one of the finest programs ever broadcast on radio. (Weekend ATC continues at 5pm with Daniel Zwerdling.)

New York City Sells WNYC TV To ITT and Dow Jones

On Thursday, August 3 Mayor Rudy Giuliani announced that city-owned WNYC TV 31 would be sold to ITT and Dow Jones for $207 million. The revenue from the sale will go to the city to help close its budget gap. But the future of New York public radio is secure.

As the Mayor announced in March, the city will sell WNYC AM and FM to the not-for-profit WNYC Foundation for $20 million. This decision to sell WNYC Radio (established by New York City in 1924) to the Foundation, not the highest bidder, recognized the value of WNYC Radio in the cultural landscape of New York City.

Already 33,000 listeners have contributed to the Independence Campaign. The WNYC Foundation acknowledges that a public radio campaign of this size is unprecedented, but believes that with the continued support of WNYC listeners, members, foundations, corporations, and the New York philanthropic community, the money can be raised.

The new owners of WNYC TV, ITT and Dow Jones, intend to broadcast business news, information, and sports. It will take 6-10 months for the sale and the FCC approval process to be completed. Until that time, WNYC TV will continue to present its mix of programs.

Jewish New Year

This one-hour special celebrates Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year. Rosh Hashanah is the season of penitence and renewal. It is a time of intensive soul searching, time to restore balance to the human and divine worlds. The Birthday of the World looks at the music, customs, and rituals of a holiday.

The Birthday of the World, AM820, Saturday, September 23, 8pm

Children at Risk

In contemporary America many children grow up in cities as dangerous as Sarajevo, hanging out at drug bazaars where crack cocaine is bought and used. They live in worlds where AIDS, teenage pregnancy, and guns are everywhere. The Lives of the Children is dedicated to letting children tell the stories of their own lives, often describing the dangers kids face today and their remarkable ability to survive. Award-winning journalist Linda Ellerbee hosts this six-part series.

The Lives of the Children, AM820, Saturdays, 10pm

WNYCPUBLIC RADIO*WNYC/PUBLIC RADIO MUSIC SOURCE TOP-10

Listeners around the country have been responding to the WNYC production "Band in Berlin," featuring the Hudson Shad's re-creation of the music of the 1930s hit band, the Comedian Harmonists, and the PRMS has been taking large numbers of orders for the group's forthcoming release.

1. Hudson Shad/Spawn Song
2. Johann Sebastian Bach/The Goldberg Variations [Elektra/Nonesuch]
3. Sharon Isbin & Carlos Barbosa-Lima/West Side Story & Rhapsody in Blue [Concord Jazz]
4. Anna Russell/The Anna Russell Album [Columbia Special Projects]
5. Johann Sebastian Bach/Sonata #3 for Violin & Partitas 1-3 [Capitol]
6. Van Duser & Novick/Guy & Billy [Daring]
7. Camille Saint-Saens/Cello Sonatas, Japanese Melodies [Calliope]
8. Sequentia/Canticles of Ecstasy - Music of Hildegard von Bingen [Deutsche Harmonia Mundi]
9. Chanticleer/Mexican Baroque [Elektra Video]
10. Chorovaya Akademia/Ancient Echoes [RCA Victor]

As usual, calls to the PRMS closely followed those artists who've been featured on WNYC programs. Features on Chanticleer and Guy & Billy on All Things Considered, the Anna Russell Album on Evening Music, and the Sequentia/Hildegard recording on New Sounds propelled those respective CDs onto this month's list of the ten best-sellers among WNYC listeners. Remember, the PRMS can deliver any CD currently in print and a portion of your purchase supports WNYC. They are available each day until midnight.

Barbara Cook is quite simply one of the finest stage performers in the history of the Broadway musical. Her excellence extends to both her beautiful voice and to her expressive acting. Here is the perfect collection—memorable readings of 16 songs from 9 shows. Included are evergreen original cast performances from Candide, The Music Man, The King and I, She Loves Me, Showboat, The Grass Harp, The Gay Life, Plain And Fancy And Flahooley. Says New York Times Writer James Gavin in his splendid notes, "Cook revealed a natural intimacy, a knack to communicate as herself, not just as a character." (KOC-7905)

MARY MARTIN

THE DECCA YEARS 1938-1946

"I'm not always right but I was right in the case of a little girl who came to audition for me in 1938. I gave her a song I'd written called 'My Heart Belongs To Daddy.'" -Cole Porter

Before South Pacific, before Peter Pan, Mary Martin, given an early break by Cole Porter, made a series of absolutely charming recordings for the Decca label. Here they are, collected for the first time on CD. From her trademark Porter tune and a handful of others by that composer— I Get A Kick Out Of You, What Is This Thing Called Love, Let's Do It—to other stage classics from Irving Berlin, Johnny Burke, Frank Loesser, George Gershwin, Johnny Mercer and more— the legendary Ms. Martin gives some of the freshest vocal performances ever recorded. Says note writer James Gavin, "Heard today, these sides stand as the work of a gifted singer... The comic numbers have an appealingly light touch, the ballads a lullaby quality—rare qualities in a Broadway performer." (KOC-7906)
